President's Column

Dear Society Members,

On Friday the 21st of January we will hold our 7th Annual Winter Gala, a time to speak with other geologists and to reflect on the past year and things to come. Live entertainment and libations will be offered with dinner and prizes. All geologists, associates and friends are invited to this well attended event. Please RSVP no later than Monday, January 17th to Amy Lang at (614) 717-9262 or e-mail AmyLang@columbus.rr.com. If you have not already done so, it would also be an excellent time to renew your membership. Membership renewals are due by January 31st.

Hope to see you at the winter gala!

Sincerely,

Jason F. Henthorne
President

The Colonel, Inc. is pleased to announce that they have reprinted a limited number of copies of the 1907 book: A Few Scraps (Oily and Otherwise) by Alfred W. Smiley. Smiley drew upon his extensive personal experience in the early oil patch, and his book gives us a glimpse into that world. Filling barrels, driving horse teams, loading wagons and boats with oil, rowing the oil-filled boats to the mouth of Oil Creek, pipeline construction and pipeline management are a few of the many jobs Smiley held. He was a roommate of John Wilkes Booth at Pithole. As oil towns came and went, Smiley went with them, through several of the northwestern counties of Pennsylvania and into Ohio. Copies of A Few Scraps are available through the Drake Well Museum gift shop. To order, print the order form from the Drake Well web site (<http://www.drakewell.org> and follow the link to the museum shop) and either mail your request and a check made payable to "The Colonel, Inc." in the amount of $36.80 (includes $30.00 for the book plus $1.80 tax and $5.00 shipping) to: Drake Well Museum, 202 Museum Lane, Titusville, PA 16354 or fax it to Jeremy at (814) 827-4888 with your credit card information. For additional information or to place an order by phone, call (814) 827-2797 or email Jeremy at drakewell@usachoice.net.
